

A diagram illustrating the relationship between two overlapping rectangular areas. The diagram is enclosed in a thin yellow border. It features three distinct regions: a gray 'Floating Area' on the left, a black 'Reference Area' on the right, and a brown 'Overlapped Area' where they intersect. The text labels are placed within their respective regions.

Floating Area

Overlapped Area

Reference Area